

WHAT ARE THE ELIGIBILITY RULES FOR THE EXTERNSHIP COURSE?

All students must be in academic good standing and have a cumulative G.P.A. of 2.2 or better to enroll in the Externship course. For first year students who wish to do an externship during the summer following their first year, the American J.D. students must possess a first-semester G.P.A. of 2.2 or higher and have completed 24 credits hours in their first year. First year Dual J.D. students must have a first-semester G.P.A. of 2.2 or higher in Comparative Legal Theory and Analysis I.

Please note: Externship credits for the Dual J.D. students do not count toward credits required for graduation.

For all students who meet the above eligibility requirements: Students may not apply to a federal judge or state appellate judge without pre-approval of the Externship Director.
