

Concentration in Immigration Law

The Concentration is an internal recognition of students' accomplishments. If eligible, the Concentration will be applied to each student's official transcript.

Students will complete 15 credits with a minimum 3.0 GPA in each of the following courses. Students may not opt to take any of these courses Pass/No Pass:

Law 2960 U.S. Immigration Law or Law 6230 U.S. and Canadian Immigration Law (both taught at the School of Law) or 08 98 9571 Canadian Immigration Law (taught at University of Windsor) for 3 credits;

Law 5060 Immigration Law Clinic for 3 or 4 credits;

Law 5061 Advanced Immigration Law Clinic for 2 credits;

Law 7090 Immigration Law Firm Program for 3 credits;

Law 5160 Immigration-related Externship for 3 credits;

Law 4330 Immigration Law Seminar for 2 credits.

For a copy of the Application for the Immigration Law Concentration, please click on the link below the Concentration in Immigration Law link on our website. The Application is due in the Law School Registrar's Office one year before a student graduates.