Summer Term Policies:

- 1. Credit hour limit: Students in the American JD program may enroll a maximum of nine (9) credits in the Intersession and Term III combined. Students in the American and Canadian JD program may enroll in a maximum of ten (10) credits in the Intersession and Term III combined.
- 2. Financial aid: Students must enroll in a minimum of three (3) credits to be eligible for US federal financial aid.
- 3. Course cancellation: Courses with an enrollment of less than ten (10) students (except the Clinics) are subject to cancellation.
- 4. Absence policy: Students are not permitted any absences in the Intersession classes.

Summer Clinic Requirements:

Family Law Clinic: Students must complete a minimum of 105 work hours and must be available for court on Tuesdays from 2 to 4 and Thursdays from 11 to 4.

Criminal Trial Clinic: Students must be available on Wednesday mornings and must also complete a minimum of 105 work hours primarily during business/court hours.

Federal Pro Se Clinic: Students must be available Monday and Wednesday afternoons from 12:30 to 5:00., and must complete a minimum of 105 work hours.

Course Information:

Selected Topics in Children and the Law Seminar: This 3-credit course will meet during Intersession and on the following date in the summer term: Friday, July 22, 9:30 – 11:30 AM and 12:00 – 2:00 PM. Students must attend all course sessions and meet with the professor for one conference over the course of the intersession and summer term. Because students must spend substantial time drafting and revising their papers as well as meeting with Professor Paruch for this course, students are strongly advised to limit enrollment in the summer session to ONE additional course.
